New York

Digital Experts Academy is an entrepreneurship incubator that specializes in digital marketing. Aspiring entrepreneurs worldwide, come to DEA for cutting edge training, solutions, and strategies.

Founded by a group of young Internet entrepreneurs who have been cashing in on the Digital Gold Rush over the last five years, DEA's ultimate goal is to help its members become financially self sufficient as digital entrepreneurs in the new economy.

We looked at everything someone starting from scratch would require to successfully transition to being a full time digital marketer, and beyond. Based on that, we created four levels of membership designed to take you from being an opportunity seeker all the way to being a digital expert.

Each level was specifically designed to graduate the member to the next phase of self-reliance by teaching a new set of marketing, leadership and entrepreneurial skill-sets.

The intended outcome is that members acquire the skills through training and other resources so that they can become financially self-sufficient as digital entrepreneurs.
